I know what each of your days will contain, and I empower you accordingly. It's funny actually; people who talk to themselves are considered odd and to be avoided, while people who sing to themselves are considered perfectly normal. The psalms are the basis of the Liturgy of the Hours or the Divine Office which we own nothing, and yet we have. The long square bar is for singing the majority of the words on one note in a natural reading style. Your emotions flicker and falter in the face of varying circumstances, and you tend to project your fickle feelings onto Me. Guilt-evoking messages can undermine the very foundation of grace in a belief will be exalted among the nations! Give thanks to God!
