From one point of view, McAlister's unique skill set constitutes a refreshing change of Rara!: Vodou, methodologically speaking. Haiti -- Social conditions -- Vodou music -- Haiti -- History and criticism. Rather than delving into detailed musical analysis, decoding local epistemologies of musical performance, or developing yet another quirky system of transcription, she instead spends her time exploring divination and magic, analyzing dialogic speech codes, and examining Rara as part of the historical struggle of Haiti's poor, oppressed majority to obtain basic human rights on both the local and [End Page ] international stage.
