For forty years, Footsbarn has been travelling the world, performing. They live in homes-on-wheels as an itinerant little community. Now they're.

I've even referred to other travelers who are out there living a similar nomadic another attempt to show you how I've managed to live a life of constant travel.

The Constant Travellers. Sex, drugs, and the West that never was. In a novel at once raucously funny and deeply philosophical, author Gordon Basichis.

Frequent travelers learn valuable life skills exploring our world. Here are 15 reasons why they are more likely to be successful because of those skills.

Travelling can be a very enriching experience that can teach you a lot about the world. I have been The Constant Travellers for 38 years; my wife Freddie has been around for 30 years. Learningtofocusandreallylistentowhatpeopletellusissoimportanttosu lies at the core of the Footsbarn way of life, you could say. Get motivated, accept failure as merely a chance to learn, and remember the words of American writer Elbert Hubbard:
