It's a bit difficult to give you good advice because all depends on the circumstances. The ewe has no motherly feelings.

Sheep mix is supplemental food for pregnant ewes, as they need extra nutrition. Normally the milk of the mom will dry up and will cause no problem. Not an easy task to start with lambs that need bottle feeding. In the second month, the lambs will increase their portions but drink less often, just like human babies. So, why can't you feed a lamb with a baby bottle? You should check her behind, be Standard Sunday School Hymnal I am Jesus' little lamb Author:
