Once again, Miles reached out a hand, somewhat more tentatively this time. It's a true comedy of manners with well-drawn characters and a lively, entertaining plot. I put this on my clean-romance shelf, although at the end there are some "steals". The plot made me giggle in many places, especially when Hannah forgot to act like a lady. It just sounds like a wonderful story. They appeared completely captivated. However Charlotte's younger, green, half-sister Hannah brings back laughter. can still join the reading challenge until July 1,
