Being next-door neighbours with less than a year between them, their friendship pre-dated school, memory even, and, as sometimes with siblings, only existed beyond school boundaries. As a man going into the second part of a life, he is feeling more at home in his body, more at home as a father and more at home as a human being than he ever did. There was a two-fold pleasure in this forced voyeurism.

Pale and underdeveloped, he knew now why he had thrilled to see Jude naked. It was strange how all the information he had managed to glean about homosexuals had come from the one person who dreaded them. He was quick and creative, and having no remarkable physical attributes had armoured himself with an almost precocious ability to charm.

John and Jude were like brothers; their relationship was simply the result of are you fooling? In fact their whole relationship had revolved around John pandering to his every selfish whim, and treated as nothing more than a mirror to his vanity.
