Dog of the Yukon movie Call of the Wild series. He left California in July and traveled by boat to Dyea, Alaska where he landed and went inland. The dogs must carry heavy loads to the mining areas, and the journeys they make are tiresome and long. What if it had taken place in the American West They overfeed the dogs and then starve them when the food runs. The southern lands represent the soft, materialistic world; the north symbolizes a world beyond civilization and is inherently competitive.

The enduring appeal of the story, according to American literature scholar D...
