The most interesting of them the wonderful portrait of Madame Tangry and her daughters [19], is now thought to have been executed by his pupil Navez, although the drawing and design is surely by David. Customer reviews There are no customer reviews .

We removed precisely because this was a conflict within David. It is true that David was, as his contemporaries said, 'the painter of the will'; and in the Horatii and the Brutus the will enjoins the sacrifice of sentiment to duty: His first prison had a pleasant view over the Luxembourg Gardens, which he recorded with a freedom and naturalism that shows he was a born painter.
