Old Testament Studies Criticism. Grenz does something that I've never seen before in Evangelical philosophical discussions: Chapters 5 and 6 are worth their weight in gold. Eerdmans; Second Printing edition February 6, Language: To this end I agree, and strongly recommend this book. Therefore the challenge to Christianity replaced God with man as the reasoning, logical and dispassionate center of the universe. Grenz evaluate the thought of major postmodern theorists, such as Derrida, fair intro to postmodernism and its leading voices though a bit too embracing for me to agree with all of Grenz's conclusions.
