The Family Freeloader by Sister Renee Pittelli, published by Outskirts Press

Is there a freeloader in your family? Are you tired of being constantly hit up for money, invitations, and favors? Are you fed up with always being the host and.

THE FAMILY FREELOADER- SOB STORIES, CON GAMES, AND NEVER HAVING TO GET OFF THE COUCH

In real life, the majority of family freeloaders aren't nearly so obvious. Most family freeloaders would be better described as "Schnorrers". "Schnorrer" is a Yiddish.

My older brother literally dumped our mother on my doorstep and left without saying goodbye, that was almost ten years ago, she is 92 and just had a stroke which left her angry, confused and not able to respect boundaries at all. Oh, come on, stop complaining. They want you to feel sorry for them, and they thrive on being the center of attention. But Jessica had not been indoctrinated from childhood to be the family caretaker like Carly .
