He is correct when he writes about the words Americans now use when discussing politics. I learned a lot from this booklet. Government subsidies at the federal level are the reason most of these public I feel though that in times of dire needs that dire things need to happen, and it is my sentiments that people should help themselves and help themselves pay their own bills, but my heart says it is completely wrong to force an and 80 something year old lady out of their homes, because of skyrocketing increases in housing. Nearly four years after the precipitous rise of Occupy Wall Street, the movement so many thought had disappeared has instead splintered and regrown into a variety of focused causes. It won't appeal to good, patriotic Americans, or to that much sought-after crowd that have marketable skills; others less so.
