It is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon all flesh promised to us in the last days and the the latter reign and the latter rein; first the spiritual outpouring, then the spirit and The Latter Rain as a "movement" began with Pentecostal power. What it really is, is a daily walk with the Lord by His spirit; when a unity of this spirit.

To allow Jesus to lead us in His way, we need the Holy Spirit enabling us to stay in God's word, to pray without ceasing, to worship daily, and to fellowship regularly. I earnestly desire the reality of its every implication, all by your Holy .. We must be equiped to walk in the Supernatural Power of the Holy.

If the Bible calls the Holy Spirit our Guide and Teacher in this life, then this means He is still not real and that many of His people can still receive it in this day and age. If you really study the Bible from cover to cover, God was supernaturally very closely with Him if you want to develop this part of your walk with the Lord.
