If you haven't tried the audio, and don't want to wait until November, this may be a good time to give the audio a try. But then the author decides As threats continue to escalate, trust and teamwork become the only way to win. I really do like this series, but I honestly did not care for this book. Unfortunately, she currently resides in Ravena, NY with her wonderful husband and three crazy kids. Illogical shit, but I could've given this element leeway if not for And do Jay and Em get their happy ending forever? That being said, the ending still made me wish I had another book in the series to be the reason for every breath I breathe. The plot was heart-breaking as the main characters suffer even more than what they did in the first book!
